Pop-Up Work Bee

We anticipate a visit from the Atlantic Union Conference accreditation team following spring break in April. Our school board and staff have been working carefully on our school's accreditation application to be submitted upon their visit. The accreditation team will be onsite all day, observing the Parkview experience.

We want to present our very best for them and would appreciate the help of our Parkview families who have availability during spring break to give of their time to spruce up our school. We will meet on Monday, April 3rd from 8am-12pm. Come for an hour or two or stay the whole time...whatever fits your schedule. Home & School will provide refreshments to all our volunteers.
